

By Moonlight to Freedom, Underground

A provisional compendium of people, places and activities of the Underground Railroad in Lancaster County, PA

By Daniel K. Ness

September 2022

An encyclopedia of America's first civil rights movement in Lancaster County, 1825-1875.

Anti-slavery activities of 1,045 people at more than 300 places
documented in 340
pages with 2,380
footnotes and 650 illustrations.

Author & Historian Daniel K. Ness at the annual commemoration of the Resistance at Christiana, Lancaster County PA,
September 10, 2022

Now on sale at LancasterHistory, 230 N. President Ave., Lancaster, PA or contact the author at 717.392.1405 or umbleness@gmail.com

Books have been donated to these libraries: Lancaster Friends at Tulane Terrace; LancasterHistory; Landis Homes; Moore Memorial Christiana; Mennonite Life; Muddy Creek Farm Ephrata; African American Historical Society at Trinity Parish Center